BIOGRAPHY

Jon Seyhun is a Senior Analyst based in our Chicago office.

Mr. Seyhun assists with all aspects of the fraud-related investment loss calculation process including data analysis, modeling and monitoring, and automation. Using the firm's securities monitoring software and his own trade data analysis, Mr. Seyhun leverages programming methods to evaluate and monitor matters for individual and institutional clients. In addition, Mr. Seyhun assists in managing the creation and distribution of proprietary monitoring reports for the firm's institutional investor clients.

Mr. Seyhun graduated from Northwestern University (B.A., Statistics and Economics) and from Yale University (M.A., Statistics). He is the Founder of InsiderSentiment.com, a service that provides investors with value-add insights from publicly available insider transaction data.
